

Junior High Interest

$17.00

In 1938, Edith's parents send her to Chicago with other German Jewish children. Her aunt treats her like a servant, and the immigration office registers her as an enemy alien. Her parents' concentration camp deaths push Edith to make a life for herself in America. Though somewhat didactic, Edith's story offers insight into America's One Thousand Children rescue project.

Junior High Interest

$17.50

A group of kids “make history,” literally, after they carve Egyptian-seeming hieroglyphics into clay and allow the “ancient” artifact to be discovered in the river near their small town in Manitoba, Canada. Cody, 12, is desperate to save his town from going under, especially because his best friend, Eric, may have to leave. So, with the help of Eric’s twin sister, Rachel, the friends cook up a plan to make their town a tourist attraction and revive the economy. After doing online research, they carve symbols into a clay “tablet,” and sure enough, the word gets out that an exciting discovery has been made, and the press and tourists flock to Sultana to view the find.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

Basil joins with fellow dragons Marnya and Ganta in the final battles to save Avalon. With the resolution of Merlin's familial discontent, the final pieces are put in place to try to rid the land of evil. Though the writing continues to be over the top, the descriptive text paints a colorful picture of Avalon

Junior High Interest

$15.00

Things have changed for Atticus Higginbottom. After the near catastrophe in the Fourth Reality, Tick's being homeschooled in the fields of science, trying to master the mysterious Chi'karda. But just as he begins to make progress, Mistress Jane reappears, now hideously scarred and much more powerful. She has tapped into the universe's darkest secret to create the Blade of Shattered Hope, and in her quest to attain a Utopian Reality for the future of mankind, she's ready to risk billions of lives&...including those of Tick's parents and sisters&...to set her plan in motion.

Junior High Interest

$15.50

In Ransom, Ranger's apprentice Will makes new allies among the desert tribes of Arrida during a ransom mission. In Clonmel, graduate Ranger Will and his mentor Halt tackle a religious cult looking to depose Halt's brother. The series continues to deliver a shrewd protagonist who uses wits and woodcraft to further the exciting, adventure-filled plots

Junior High Interest

$15.50

- How I Survived Middle School presents everyday issues that only bestselling author Nancy Krulik can address with her humor and hands-on experience. It's Career Day at school, and Jenny's favorite aunt, the art director at a greeting card company, comes to speak. When her aunt takes interest in Jenny's friend Liza's artwork, Jenny is thrilled. But when her aunt wants to use Liza's artwork for a new line of cards, Jenny suddenly finds herself feeling jealous of her friend! Jenny isn't the only one who is green with envy.

Junior High Interest

$16.50

A year has passed since Fiona's mother died in a sailing accident, and the 13-year-old has not been able to fill the void left by her and their shared love of sailing. To add to her sadness, her father has forbidden her to sail and puts the family boat up for sale, and he starts dating Kathy, a professional psychic who believes that she can speak with the dead. Fiona enlists the help of her best friend, Abby, for a school project to investigate psychic phenomena. She believes that proving Kathy is a fraud will break up her father's relationship, although a small part of her longs to be able to communicate with her mother. Only by learning more about her parents and Kathy is she able to slowly accept the possibility of a hopeful future.

Junior High Interest

$16.00

Asa Coppermane, daughter of a Viking chief, is anxious to help her people during a particularly difficult winter, but when Jorgen, the clan's wise man, tells her she must kill her beloved horse Rune for food, she runs away and finds shelter with a mysterious old woman who seems to have a strange power.

Junior High Interest

$13.00

A visitor from the future has returned to Droon. Her name is Salamandra, and she is a sorceress -- and an old foe. But Salamandra really seems to want to help Eric and his friends. She shows them a terrifying vision of the future in which Droon's capital has burnt to the ground.

Junior High Interest

$15.50

Eric, Keeah, Neal, and Julie are forced to take drastic measure in order to protect the kingdom of Droon from the millions of beasts assembling outside the capital, but in order to defeat the all-powerful Moon Dragon, they will have to uncover Droon's greatest secret.

Junior High Interest

$16.50

Taking it down a whole 'nother level, Will and Chester journey to the deadly center of the earth in FREEFALL. By the authors of the NYT Bestseller TUNNELS--soon to be a major motion picture! DEEPER ended with Will and Chester head over heels in FREEFALL-- tumbling through the subterranean Pore with the evil Rebecca twins in hot pursuit, toting phials of the toxic Dominion virus. When, where, will they ever land? Just when the drop seems infinite, the boys hit bottom, and find themselves in a realm of near-zero gravity atop a giant spongy fungus stuffed with flesh-eating spiders. But the true threat lies closer; dangerously close to Will's heart. And above ground, black-clad Styx are sprouting like poison mushrooms, dead-set on spreading their plague!

Junior High Interest

$16.00

Boy archaeologist Will Burrows wanders the caverns beneath the Colony with his best friend Chester and brother Cal, falls upon the Styx's plan to get rid of Topsoilers with a deadly plague, and risks his life to foil their plot while wondering if his killer stepsister is still on the loose.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

Maddy Hays ends up on the cheerleading B-squad, a not-so-promising group called the Grizzlies, instead of on the top squad, the Titans. Can she deal with her disappointment and find a way to make being on the Grizzlies something to cheer about?

Junior High Interest

$16.00

At sixteen, Marco Polo yearns for adventure. He wants to follow in the footsteps of his father, a famous explorer, but instead he is training to become the head accountant for the Polo family fortune. When his father vanishes while on a dangerous mission to the Unknown Lands, Marco sets out on a rescue mission with his best friend, Amelio. Soon Marco has an astounding realization: The fate of the whole world may turn on the outcome of his journey. This thrilling story is packed with Asian magic, swashbuckling sword fights, overwhelming odds, and the ultimate battle between good and evil.

Junior High Interest

$14.00

Twelve-year-old Henry hits upon a plan for himself and his friends Reed and Riley to become "Men of Action and Daring, Masters of Adventure." The ensuing shenanigans include roof biking, Dumpster diving, and parade crashing. These episodic boys-will-be-boys adventures feature lots of kid-pleasing humor.

Junior High Interest

$16.00

In this eagerly awaited fourth novel (The Thief, etc.) set in a semi-classical world, Turner focuses on Sophos, prince of Sounis, who has been kidnapped by rebel barons. Turner's knotting of plots and counterplots, battle tactics, diplomatic skullduggery, the tensions of state business and personal desire, as well as events from earlier books is masterful.

Junior High Interest

$22.00

"In this retelling, a scientist invents a time machine and uses it to travel to the year 802,701 A.D., where he discovers the childlike Eloi and the hideous underground Morlocks"

Junior High Interest

$14.50

In a terrifying new world, four girls must depend on each other if they want to survive. Evelyn has always suspected that things are more sinister and more complicated than they seem. Now that Maddie has been kidnapped, Rosie, Louisa, and the boys are paying more attention to Evelyn's theories. As the group makes their way toward war-torn Chicago, they're under constant threat of capture.

Junior High Interest

$16.00

Becker Drane's coolest job in The World--as a Fixer in The Seems--is in jeopardy. So when a trainload of Thought goes missing, Becker reluctantly agrees to join a veteran team of Fixers on a mission in The Middle of Nowhere. Turns out getting the train back on track is just a temporary Fix, and Becker's real mission just might end his Fixing days forever. This third book takes readers deeper into The Seems than ever before. It's a nail-biting thrill ride at every turn.

Junior High Interest

$13.50

In this sequel to Fiendish Deeds, Joy's research on Spooking--her decrepit hilltop community--intersects with Octavio Phipps's ill-intentioned plan to modernize the town. This draws them both into the mysterious goings-on at the Spooking Asylum.

Junior High Interest

$13.50

Joy Wells is a proud resident of Spooking, the terrible town at the top of the hideous hill. At the bottom of the hill is Darlington, a plastic suburban "paradise" where Joy and her brother go to school. When the mayor of Darlington announces that a water park is going to be constructed over the Spooking bog, Joy is horrified. She decides that she has to save the mysterious bog and the endangered species in it but someone is determined to stop her! The Addams Family meets Carl Hiaasen in this quirky mystery with an environmental twist.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

In Lowry's breezy, comic royalty-in-disguise tale, pampered Princess Patricia Priscilla--"Pat"--switches outfits with her chambermaid and attends school. Back at the castle, plans are underway for Pat's sixteenth birthday bash, during which she must choose among three outrageously revolting suitors. Can Pat escape an awful marriage and continue her schooling? Lowry's wickedly gleeful caricatures meet their match in Feiffer's animated drawings.

Junior High Interest

$15.00

Fourteen-year-old "psychic investigator" Gilda Joyce arrives in Washington, D.C., for a summer internship. Working at the International Spy Museum, she soon finds herself embroiled in real-life espionage. In Gilda's fourth story, clever details and a lighthearted approach continue to combine with suspenseful plotting to draw in readers.

Junior High Interest

$19.00

Thirteen-year-old Lucy, whose mother had her when she was fifteen, tries to hold on to her faith and solve problems on her own while her family deals with a reduced income, her relationship with her best friend becomes strained, and her parents begin arguing over her mom's rebellious acts.

Junior High Interest

$15.50

Four siblings become entangled in a fairy war while visiting their relatives in England. Eldest Rowan, enchanted by the Fairy Queen, vows to fight for Her Majesty, to his siblings' dismay. As a result, sister Meg must choose between saving Rowan and upholding a tradition that's centuries old. Sullivan combines a detail-rich world with surprising plot twists in this satisfying fantasy.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

In a short introduction, narrator Jimmy sets the scene: 1940s West Virginia railroad town. Seven episodic chapters follow, one per year, describing events on Halloween night. Jimmy and his brothers make mischief and investigate a long-standing "secret society," and Jimmy bonds with his railroad foreman father. The stories are by turns humorous, sad, uplifting, and nostalgic.

Junior High Interest

$15.50

Alfonso Perplexon (Dormia), descended from a fantastical band of sleepwalkers, suspects his long-lost father might secretly be alive. During a class trip to Paris, Alfonso sleepwalks his way to Egypt, reunites with old confidants, and heads back to Dormia to investigate. Fans of the first book will enjoy this complex, well-paced installment.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

A Morse code message embroidered on a crinoline leads Enola Holmes to a kidnapper--and Florence Nightingale. Once again, the feisty fourteen-year-old detective matches wits with her older brother, and for the first time, Sherlock rethinks his "proper and traditional" plans for his "daredevil, oh-so-clever" sister. This fifth book in Springer's series is a riveting read, and it's Enola's strongest outing yet.

Junior High Interest

$15.50

Having solved the matter of the Radiant Boy, Riley, Buttercup, and Bodhi are enjoying a well-deserved vacation. When Riley comes across a vicious black dog, against Bodhi's advice, she decides to cross him over. While following the dog, she runs into a young ghost named Rebecca. Despite Rebecca's sweet appearance, Riley soon learns she's not at all what she seems.

Junior High Interest

$14.50

In a terrifying future world, four girls must depend on each other if they want to survive. Maddie is ready for action. Louisa, Evelyn, and Rosie helped rescue her from the Alliance's grasp, and she's learned an enormous, game-changing secret: her mother is the leader of the Resistance! But reuniting with her long-absent mother is not going to be easy. As Maddie and her friends set out to find the Resistance headquarters, they are relentlessly pursued by the Alliance. Worst of all, members of their group have gone missing in the middle of rubble-strewn Chicago.

Junior High Interest

$19.50

This is the first book in a new epic trilogy that has already become a bestselling sensation in England and Australia, earning comparisons to The Lord of the Rings. It begins with the legend of a nightingale floor in a black-walled fortress—a floor that sings in alarm at the step of an assassin. It will take true courage and all the skills of an ancient Tribe for one orphaned youth named Takeo to discover the magical destiny that awaits him...across the nightingale floor.

Junior High Interest

$20.00

In 1962 Norvelt, Pennsylvania (a town founded by Eleanor Roosevelt), Jack's summer job keeps him busy. Jack's work--typing up obituaries for his arthritic neighbor--chronicles the history of the community: a "museum of freaks." There's more than laugh-out-loud gothic comedy here. This is a richly layered semi-autobiographical tale, an ode to a time and place, to history and the power of reading.

Junior High Interest

$16.50

A tsunami shipwrecks Ermintrude on a tropical island. There she meets Mau, the only survivor of the island's "nation." The historical era is an alternative nineteenth century. Serious subjects and juicy ethical questions are fully woven into action and character. Add a romance, encounters with ghosts, and lots of gunfire, and it's hard to imagine a reader who won't feel welcomed.

Junior High Interest

$22.50

Fleming begins her gripping narrative aboard the Itasca, a ship helping guide Earhart to Howland Island for refueling. The text then backs up to explore Amelia's life. Interspersed with the main text are short chapters about civilians claiming to have picked up mayday calls. The book's structure and scope, along with the story's inherent drama, provide a taut backdrop for Earhart's history. Websites

Junior High Interest

$16.00

In an unnamed country (a thinly veiled Philippines), three teenage boys pick trash for a meager living. A bag of cash in the trash might be—well, not their ticket out of poverty but at least a minor windfall. With 1,100 pesos, maybe they can eat chicken occasionally, instead of just rice. Gardo and Raphael are determined not to give any of it to the police who've been sniffing around, so they enlist their friend Rat. In alternating and tightly paced points of view, supplemented by occasional other voices, the boys relate the intrigue in which they're quickly enmeshed. A murdered houseboy, an orphaned girl, a treasure map, a secret code, corrupt politicians and 10,000,000 missing dollars: It all adds up to a cracker of a thriller.

Junior High Interest

$23.00

Benedict Arnold, ambition-driven, believed the Revolution was his path to honor, respect, and wealth; his decision to turn traitor is both chilling and compellingly portrayed. Interspersed throughout this biography is the story of Major John Andri, the British officer who colluded with Arnold. Numerous quotes (many from original sources and all documented) add to the lively narrative. Maps are included

Junior High Interest

$14.50

It's back to school for the start of a new term, and the eccentric Cassons are up to their old tricks! Indigo, having just recovered from a bout of mononucleosis, must return to school after missing an entire semester. Only his younger sister and loyal sidekick, Rose, knows why he's dreading it so much. As it turns out, the school bullies are eagerly awaiting Indigo's return so that they can pick up where they left off -- flushing his head in the toilet. But Indigo hasn't counted on meeting Tom, an American student who is staying with his grandmother in England for the year. With his couldn't-care-less attitude and rock-and-roll lifestyle, Tom becomes Indigo's ally, and together they work to take back the school.

Junior High Interest

$15.00

Twelve-year-old foster child Hollis Woods, troublesome and artistic, has run away from the family she adores. The mystery surrounding her sudden departure--why would she leave a home where she is, at last, happy and wanted?--propels this story about the importance of self-expression and of belonging. Despite some heavy-handed symbolism, this is a remarkably well-observed novel, weaving gracefully back and forth in time.